
Series are derived only from sample IDs; they are not assigned mineralization stages.
Two reference boxes show independent C and O marginal ranges, not paired measurements.